

MESA VALLEY
BOY IS KILLEDThrown From Father's Auto
Sunday and Back was Broken; Wife Driving.

While Manuel R. Chavez, a merchant of Mesilla Park, N. M., was en route to El Paso in his automobile Sunday afternoon to make a purchase of shoes from a commercial traveler, his five-year-old son, Demetrio J. Chavez, was thrown from the rear seat of the car to the road and received injuries from which he died shortly after being received into the home of T. R. Bull, 2319 Bassett avenue.

Judge J. M. Deaver held the inquest and pronounced the death to be accidental. Mr. Chavez, completely unnerved by the fatality, explained that he had brought his family with him for the ride, that Mrs. Chavez sat on the front seat while the nurse, baby and small Demetrio occupied the rear seat. "We had a luncheon with us and after we had eaten Mrs. Chavez took the wheel. Mrs. Chavez had passed two wagons when she was struck by the car. She was thrown from the edge of the road and my little boy must have been thrown out."

The boy's back was broken and he was internally injured. Dr. C. J. D. Sexton was called and shortly after his arrival at the Bull home death occurred.

The remains were returned Sunday evening to Mesilla Park, N. M., for interment where the funeral was held Monday morning. The interment was in the direction of the Peak Undertaking company. The father of the child is proprietor of the Mesilla Mercantile company.

Two Boys Hit by Auto.

The two sons of W. H. Vance were struck by an automobile Sunday evening while they were riding on Monahan street near the intersection of Santa street. James, aged 12, was on the head and was taken to Hotel Dietz. Harry, aged 8, was rendered unconscious and was taken to his home. The car was driven by J. Madus, who was arrested on a charge of reckless driving. The car was owned by Eugene Vega and is a seven passenger Cadillac service car. The two boys were reported to be improved Monday morning.

Abe Martin Is Arrested;
Not Old Hoosier Humorist

W. Abe Martin, alias Hugh Blackman, was arrested by deputy sheriff John Wren Monday on a fugitive warrant filed in justice by J. Murphy's court by Arthur A. Stevens, deputy sheriff from Idaho, who arrived here Sunday.

The fugitive warrant alleges that Martin, alias Blackman, is wanted in Idaho.

NEW MEXICO WOULD SECURE LONG STRIP OF COLORADO

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 25.—After thorough investigation, Gov. W. C. McDonald is convinced that New Mexico has valid claim to a 250-mile strip of land extending from half a mile wide north of the state line to a mile wide south of the state line, a strip of land along the state line of Colorado, the 7th parallel. The state would institute proceedings to secure the land, estimated to be worth several million dollars.

It is claimed that the line surveyed by E. H. Durling for the United States government in 1855, was shown by a federal survey by H. E. Carpenter in 1894 to be erroneous. A resolution passed by congress adopting president Benjamin Harrison's recommendation that the line be retraced by the United States, and it is held that E. H. Durling, or his heirs, Colorado should rightly be included in New Mexico.

PISTOL IS USED TO GET FORD AUTOMOBILE SUNDAY

A Ford robbery with all of the accessories was staged at the home of E. Martinez, Pains and Boulevard, Sunday. Ignacio Moreno drove there from New Mexico in a Ford car which he had recently purchased.

When he left the car at his friend's house two men appeared, told Martinez that if he didn't hand over the car of his house they would kill him and clinched the argument by brandishing a pistol. They then drove away in the auto.

J. B. Irvine's Chalmers auto was taken from in front of the Wilson apartment Saturday night and has not been recovered.

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KREAMER, 1614 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Synopsis.

Miss El Paso, a favorite of the wealthy Mr. Always, a Goodfellow, is interested in Mr. Goodfellow's nephew, Texas. As they are discussing young Texas, Mr. Goodfellow receives a wire accepting his uncle's invitation to visit El Paso.

Texas meets Miss El Paso at the country club dance. Much interested in her, he tells her uncle that night that Miss El Paso has inspired love at first sight. Greatly pleased, the uncle makes Texas his special friend. Texas, from the back of a runaway horse. They become engaged and Texas tells of his uncle's proposal. Miss El Paso, delighted, hastens the wedding preparations.

Miss El Paso, with the assistance of Texas's old college chum, Tom Gettleson, makes arrangements to make Texas's visit a pleasant one. They show him the industries, environment, etc. of the city. Friendship ripens to love when Texas rescues Miss El Paso from the back of a runaway horse. They become engaged and Texas tells of his uncle's proposal. Miss El Paso, delighted, hastens the wedding preparations.

They are hurried before a vast assemblage of El Pasoans and fulfill the uncle's requirements by a splendid breakfast in their new home. Leaving shortly for a short wedding trip to the Elephant Butte dam, they become interested in the wonderful possibilities of this new irrigation project and decide to invest the $10,000 check in a rainy day fund.

The closing scene shows them comfortably seated before a cheerful fire in their new home. The bride pictures the romance of El Paso in a beautiful allegory beginning with early Indian times to the present day.

THE "GILDED FOOL"
NOT SUCH A FOOL

Just to show that he can do it, Albert Taylor plays the part of a young man this week at the Crawford theater and gets away with it. As "The Gilded Fool" in Nat Goodwin's famous comedy of that name, his character is the part is not as good as his devil in "The Devil" or the sheriff in "The Man from Missouri," but he makes the character real, which is the best thing a actor can do.

The gilded fool is not such a fool as he would seem, since he picks Myrtle Hollingsworth, who plays Clara Vance, to be his wife, considering Miss Hollingsworth a good look. Miss Hollingsworth does some good acting in the part of the capitalist's daughter, who is trying to pull together the family finances, and her gown is as attractive as her personality.

Taylor is Alfred Evelyn, the supposed away mark with a million, who proves that he has something in his head as well as in his hands. It is a good looking comedy and Taylor is again on the job extracting laughs pointedly at the plan phony and the part of the Italian opera singer introduce a pleasing novelty between the first and second acts by singing grand opera selections, including the famous "The Trovatore."

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

MARY PICKFORD.
It is a pretty story that the Famous Players have produced. A girl named Mary Pickford, who is as charming as ever. The story is a simple tale of how an old fashioned girl is lured into the ways of the world by a man who is up-to-date in amusements. It provides excellent entertainment. A crowded house at the Broadway theater, New York, showed its approval by its mirth as the prim Miss Stuart was gradually but none the less, lured into the ways of the world by a man who is up-to-date in amusements.
